

Certified Grid Alchemist Application

This application is confidential and sacred.

It is an honor that you are considering pursuing Certification as a Grid Alchemist. That you are even considering such a step in your evolution can be scary sometimes. I encourage you to breathe into your answers and allow yourself the space and time to consider each question as an opportunity for clarity and growth. If you are chosen to be among the few that I work with this year, this is a powerful shift towards your expansive self, the self that already birthed energetically and has access to your deepest desires of service for the world. I honor and congratulate you! The investment price for the program has intentionally been left out in order to give your desire a chance to be explored without the financial component causing blocks. If the program isn't a match, you'll have at least explored your desires and what may be stopping you so that you can move forward in some way (if only through clarity). When done, email this application to: AnahataCodes@outlook.com.

_____ Please accept my application to be considered for the Grid Alchemist Certification. Initial.

Do you have a business vision yet? If so, what is it? (And please note if you are already doing it or haven't yet begun)

What's been holding you back from co-creating a Business which supports your deep desires and dreams to help the planet?

If you have a business, what's your business model? How many clients do you have? What are you doing to service those clients? What is the transformation you provide your clients? (If you don't have one, what would it be and be sure to note if it is a reality now or not yet).
